Job description

As part of the German Government's national hydrogen strategy, GIZ will support South Africa in building a hydrogen economy. The aim is to support appropriate framework conditions for the development and scaling of green hydrogen products, to improve local scientific expertise and skills in this area, to promote innovative technical solutions and to accompany possible pilot projects for the production and use of green hydrogen. To this end, key South African stakeholders from government, academia, and private sector and civil society need technical and strategic advice based on previous international experience.
Your tasks

- Providing technical and strategic advice to South African stakeholders from government, academia and private sector and civil society on appropriate legal and policy frameworks for green hydrogen, on building local human resources, on promoting innovative technical solutions and on implementing initial pilot projects for the production and use of green hydrogen.
- Preparation of baseline studies for the promotion of green hydrogen in South Africa
- Preparation of new GIZ commissions on hydrogen in South Africa
- Dialogue with interested companies in Europe and South Africa on possible cooperation in the field of hydrogen
- Supporting the technical, conceptual and strategic development of the topic “hydrogen” for GIZ

Your profile

- University degree in energy or engineering sciences, economics or comparable
- Sound technical knowledge and work experience in the development of green hydrogen
- Several years of relevant professional experience, preferably gained abroad, in the field of energy economics/politics
- Work experience in South Africa and knowledge of the South African energy sector is an advantage
- Broad network in the field of hydrogen in Germany and the EU
- Several years of experience in cooperation with the private sector, preferably in the field of hydrogen
- Good instinct for political and technical advice as well as high political sensitivity
- Business-fluent English skills; knowledge of German is an advantage

Location information

We are pleased to offer you a first impression on topics such as climate, shopping and services, the school situation and health care in South Africa.

In general, the security situation is calm. GIZ staff must adhere to security measures at all times. Please also check the county-specific information provided by the German Federal Foreign Office. Our benefits

Ensuring the compatibility of career, family work and care commitments is part of our corporate policy. Flexible working hours and comprehensive preparation packages for families accompanying staff abroad are two examples of the opportunities that GIZ offers its employees. Our family-friendly philosophy also includes providing support for family members in need of care., Everyone has the same opportunities in our company, regardless of gender, nationality, religion, sexual orientation or physical disability. We recruit based on specialist expertise and social skills. Transparency and fair opportunities for career advancement are just as much a matter of course for us as gender not being a barrier to taking up a management position., Your work will begin with an onboarding and preparation phase that will give you initial insights into GIZ and lay the groundwork for your upcoming assignment, establishing new contacts and building up your network., We provide opportunities for taking part in training and professional development to all our staff. Our Academy for International Cooperation (AIZ) will help you develop your skills., We are a provider of international cooperation services for sustainable development and work to build a future worth living around the world. We support projects in over 130 countries to achieve goals sustainably together with our partners., During your assignment abroad, we will largely reimburse you for the school fees incurred for sending your children to schools providing a general education., Extensive check-ups and preventive measures (e.g. on appointment, before the outward journey, during the stay in a country of assignment, in an emergency) are provided to our staff and the family members accompanying them as a matter of course. You will receive various additional benefits during your stay abroad that will depend on your country of assignment. In many places, you will receive a subsidy towards the rent on your place of residence. If you have not yet found suitable accommodation at the time of your outward journey, you will receive a subsidy to put towards your hotel costs. We have put together an extensive package of benefits for family members accompanying staff abroad, including medical check-ups, language lessons and lump-sum allowances for the outward and homeward journeys. The Academy for International Cooperation (AIZ) also offers a range of preparatory courses on local culture, history and customs and on travelling with children. We allow our staff to accrue working time credits in a long-term working time account. This credit can then be used to take a lengthy leave of absence. We offer you various part-time working models to give you flexibility in planning your working and home lives. Flexi-time and the possibility for mobile working gives staff maximum flexibility. We reward staff who achieve their agreed annual targets with a variable remuneration component.

About us

Your professional and personal development is important to us. At GIZ, you will be offered global work opportunities and an atmosphere that is characterised by diversity, respect and genuine equal opportunities. Gender equality promotion is a matter of course for us. Our benefits are also impressive in terms of work-life balance and family friendliness. Flexible working hours that fit your life situation are an integral part of our corporate culture.

GIZ is a signatory of the Diversity Charter. Recognition, appreciation and inclusion of diversity in the company are important to us. All employees shall be valued - regardless of gender and gender identity, nationality, ethnic origin, religion or belief, disability, age or sexual orientation.

GIZ would like to increase the proportion of employees with disability, both in Germany and abroad. Applications from persons with disabilities are most welcome.
