Job-ID: V000048396
Location: Bonn
Assignment period: 05/01/2022 - 12/31/2023
Field: Infrastructure

Type of employment: full- or part-time
Application deadline: 03/16/2022
GET.transform is a European multi-donor programme with the aim to support emerging economies worldwide in advancing their power system transformations. GET.transform offers comprehensive advisory services to governments, regulatory bodies and electric utilities on the topics of Long-Term Energy Planning, On- and Off-Grid Regulation and Market Development and Renewable Energy Grid Integration. GET.transform operates in Africa and Latin America.

GET.transform further hosts Leveraged Partnerships with other European-funded technical assistance projects implemented by GIZ and acts as a hub of expertise for mainstreaming and scaling-up power system transformation. Leveraged Partnerships support collaboration across GIZ projects and leverage standing expertise, contribute to cost-efficient implementation and avoid measures that are “re-inventing the wheel”.

GET.transform is looking to fill an international advisor position to support the supervision and further development of its Leveraged Partnerships. Further information: www.get-transform.eu

Your tasks

- Further develop the Leveraged Partnerships model within GET.transform and strategically link it to GIZ energy strategies and processes
- Develop an advisory service offering in power system transformation, including aspects of long-term energy planning, on- and off-grid regulation and market development and renewable energy grid integration
- Take on key-account management functions towards partner GIZ energy projects and facilitate the closing and implementation of Leveraged Partnerships
- Develop and expand project relationships, analyse key power system transformation support needs and requirements with partner countries and projects, and develop targeted advisory activities
- Organize and coordinate the implementation of Leveraged Partnerships with a team of GET.transform experts as well as with external service providers, taking into account procedural, contractual and thematic aspects
- Ensure the correct products and services are delivered in a timely manner
- Contribute to the development and implementation of cooperation strategies between global and bilateral programmes on the topic of power system transformation
- Support the GET.transform management in other external stakeholder management processes

Your profile

- Post-graduate university degree in Economics, Engineering or Environmental Science or any related discipline with a focus on sustainable energy and/or power systems
- Good knowledge of GIZ processes including internal collaboration modalities and procurement and management of larger consulting contracts is of advantage
- Good knowledge base on power systems, long-term energy planning and volatile renewable energies integration desired
- Several years of relevant professional experience, preferably gained abroad, and proven ability to work in partnership with a range of stakeholders, including governments, private sector, international and non-profit organisations
- Experience in project management and ideally in coordinating international teams of expert consulting services as well as with monitoring and evaluation systems
- Experience in working with Latin America and/or Africa highly valuable
- Business fluent English, proficiency in German is a strong advantage

Notes

This job is suited to a full or a part-time position.
The willingness for frequent business trips and to work reciprocally abroad and in Germany is required.

Our benefits

Ensuring the compatibility of career, family work and care commitments is part of our corporate policy. Flexible working hours and comprehensive preparation packages for families accompanying staff abroad are two examples of the opportunities that GIZ offers its employees. Our family-friendly philosophy also includes providing support for family members in need of care., Everyone has the same opportunities in our company, regardless of gender, nationality, religion, sexual orientation or physical disability. We recruit based on specialist expertise and social skills. Transparency and fair opportunities for career advancement are just as much a matter of course for us as gender not being a barrier to taking up a management position., Your work will begin with an onboarding and preparation phase that will give you initial insights into GIZ and lay the groundwork for your upcoming assignment, establishing new contacts and building up your network., Our health management helps staff all over the world to maintain their health and performance levels in a variety of ways., We provide opportunities for taking part in training and professional development to all our staff. Our Academy for International Cooperation (AIZ) will help you develop your skills., We are a provider of international cooperation services for sustainable development and work to build a future worth living around the world. We support projects in over 130 countries to achieve goals sustainably together with our partners. As sustainability and environmental awareness are part and parcel of our corporate philosophy, we will provide you with financial support in the form of a job ticket. Extensive check-ups and preventive measures (e.g. on appointment, before the outward journey, during the stay in a country of assignment, in an emergency) are provided to our staff and the family members accompanying them as a matter of course. We allow our staff to accrue working time credits in a long-term working time account. This credit can then be used to take a lengthy leave of absence. We offer you various part-time working models to give you flexibility in planning your working and home lives. Flexi-time and the possibility for mobile working gives staff maximum flexibility. We reward staff who achieve their agreed annual targets with a variable remuneration component. If your family is unable to go with you when you switch to another location, we will provide you with a separation allowance to help you cover the resulting extra costs. This will enable you to travel or to offset the costs of food or maintaining two households, for example.

About us

Your professional and personal development is important to us. At GIZ, you will be offered global work opportunities and an atmosphere that is characterised by diversity, respect and genuine equal opportunities. Gender equality promotion is a matter of course for us. Our benefits are also impressive in terms of work-life balance and family friendliness. Flexible working hours that fit your life situation are an integral part of our corporate culture.

GIZ is a signatory of the Diversity Charter. Recognition, appreciation and inclusion of diversity in the company are important to us. All employees shall be valued - regardless of gender and gender identity, nationality, ethnic origin, religion or belief, disability, age or sexual orientation.

GIZ would like to increase the proportion of employees with disability, both in Germany and abroad. Applications from persons with disabilities are most welcome.
