Job description

Uzbekistan is in the process of implementing economic reforms, including taking measures against climate change and for the green transformation of its economy. The efficient and competitive industrial sector is crucial for both, the reduction of CO2 emissions, and the contribution to value creation and employment. The project “Private sector development and economic policy advice for green industrialisation in Uzbekistan” supports Uzbekistan’s public and private sector actors to promote green industrialisation, and to introduce energy- and resource-efficient production. Thereby, it creates the conditions for long-term sustainable economic growth that is decoupled from the use of natural resources.

Your tasks

- Support the management of the project in the technical, content-related, and organizational implementation of the project
- Cooperate with the project’s partners and advise them on greening the industrial sector of Uzbekistan and CO2 emissions reduction
- Support the project in preparation and monitoring contracts with international and local consultants
- Support knowledge management within the project and will contribute to the communication and visibility of the project
- Responsible for the implementation of a comprehensive monitoring and evaluation and impact monitoring system for the project
- Contribute to reporting to the commissioning party and prepare presentations and publications
- Participate in event management and networking activities

Your profile
- Completed university studies in environmental studies, economics, political studies or related courses of study.
- Initial relevant work experience in the field of green economy, preferably gained in developing or emerging countries.
- First work experience in project management in development cooperation in partner countries.
- Distinct conceptual and analytical skills as well as a high level of advisory competence.
- Strong communication and teamwork skills and a high degree of self-organisation and networking skills.
- Business fluent in German and English; knowledge of Uzbek or Russian is desirable.

Our benefits

Ensuring the compatibility of career, family work and care commitments is part of our corporate policy. Flexible working hours and comprehensive preparation packages for families accompanying staff abroad are two examples of the opportunities that GIZ offers its employees. Our family-friendly philosophy also includes providing support for family members in need of care. Everyone has the same opportunities in our company, regardless of gender, nationality, religion, sexual orientation or physical disability. We recruit based on specialist expertise and social skills. Transparency and fair opportunities for career advancement are just as much a matter of course for us as gender not being a barrier to taking up a management position. Your work will begin with an onboarding and preparation phase that will give you initial insights into GIZ and lay the groundwork for your upcoming assignment, establishing new contacts and building up your network.

We are a provider of international cooperation services for sustainable development and work to build a future worth living around the world. We support projects in over 130 countries to achieve goals sustainably together with our partners. During your assignment abroad, we will largely reimburse you for the school fees incurred for sending your children to schools providing a general education. Extensive check-ups and preventive measures (e.g. on appointment, before the outward journey, during the stay in a country of assignment, in an emergency) are provided to our staff and the family members accompanying them as a matter of course. You will receive various additional benefits during your stay abroad that will depend on your country of assignment. In many places, you will receive a subsidy towards the rent on your place of residence. If you have not yet found suitable accommodation at the time of your outward journey, you will receive a subsidy to put towards your hotel costs. We have put together an extensive package of benefits for family members accompanying staff abroad, including medical check-ups, language lessons and lump-sum allowances for the outward and homeward journeys. The Academy for International Cooperation (AIZ) also offers a range of preparatory courses on local culture, history and customs and on travelling with children. We allow our staff to accrue working time credits in a long-term working time... account. This credit can then be used to take a lengthy leave of absence. We offer you various part-time working models to give you flexibility in planning your working and home lives. Flexi-time and the possibility for mobile working gives staff maximum flexibility. We reward staff who achieve their agreed annual targets with a variable remuneration component.

About us

Your professional and personal development is important to us. At GIZ, you will be offered global work opportunities and an atmosphere that is characterised by diversity, respect and genuine equal opportunities. Our benefits are also impressive in terms of work-life balance and family friendliness. Flexible working hours that fit your life situation, comprehensive onboarding and internal health management are an integral part of our corporate culture, along with the opportunity to use childcare facilities and parent/child offices.

GIZ is a signatory of the Diversity Charter. Recognition, appreciation and inclusion of diversity in the company are important to us. All employees shall be valued - regardless of gender and gender identity, nationality, ethnic origin, religion or belief, disability, social background, age or sexual orientation.

GIZ would like to increase the proportion of employees with disability, both in Germany and abroad. Applications from persons with disabilities are most welcome.
